In Regulation of 6th December 2011 No. 1359 relating to construction, design and manufacture of work equipment and chemicals amended as follows:

§ 4-1 Technical requirements
Scaffolding, ladders and temporary equipment for access and execution of work on roofs and facades and its components shall meet the technical requirements of the relevant NS-EN standards or have equivalent level of safety.

§ 4-6 Transitional arrangements
Products that are approved by The Labour Inspection Authority can be traded until the date indicated on the type approval. After the expiry of the type approval it requires a certificate in accordance with § 4-5 for further trade on the Norwegian market.

In Regulation of 6th December 2011 No. 1360 relating to administrative arrangements under The Working Environment Act amended as follows:

§ 7-3 Requirements for certifying bodies that will issue certificate in accordance with Regulation of 6th December 2011 No. 1359 relating to construction, design and manufacture of work equipment and chemicals § 4-5
The certificate shall satisfy the requirements in Regulation of 6th December 2011 No. 1359 relating to construction, design and manufacture of work equipment and chemicals § 4-5 second paragraph.

The certifying body which shall issue certificates in accordance with Regulation of 6th December 2011 No. 1359 relating to construction, design and manufacture of work equipment and chemicals § 4-5, shall annually verify that the affected product correspond to the certified product. The inspection shall be documented in writing.

The certifying body that has certified the product shall carry out the inspection. If the certifying body has ceased, another certifying body can perform the inspection.

The certifying body shall require that the manufacturer immediately correct deviation if the controlled product deviates from the certified product.

The certifying body shall recall the certificate for the product if the manufacturer does not comply any discrepancies so that the product correspond with the certified product.